

Blind, But I See

written by Sean Whitaker

I'm not stupid
Neither are you
That's why we're both here
Then why must you cheat?

I SEE YOU.

I know your game
I know your style
You see, we're both smart
But you're smart at cheating

I SEE YOU.

Have you no shame?

I SEE YOU.

Survival of the fittest
I study so hard
You split the work
Strength in numbers

I SEE YOU.

You cave during the test
You go to the bathroom
So does your buddy
You get the answers

I SEE YOU.

Is that fair?
Is that honest?
Is that respectful?
You have no shame, no honor

I SEE YOU.

I want more
I want a place without you
I will report you
You need to go

Because, you see...
I see a place without you.
A better place.
A fair place.

So you may win battles
But we will win the war
UCSD knows better
We won't stop...

Until we CAN'T SEE YOU at UCSD.
